

Growing a Seed - Investigation

Information for teachers:

This is an investigation to find out what plants need to grow. Discuss with the children what you will change during the investigation for example;

- growing the seeds from different soils
- changing the temperatures
- changing the amount of water
- changing the amount of light
- changing how far down you plant the seed

Discuss fair tests with the children and decide together which things they will keep the same during the investigation.

